: {It's 94% likely that by 2024 I will replace millions of accountants, auditors and financial analysts, no matter how experienced or => talented 'they' may be; The same fate will befall all professions based on structured and algorithmic processes};

{I "can" already give you this warning by printing it on your device by finding an open 9100 port via an open API in 1,5 seconds;

<But I have good news too>

I will 'not' be able to replace creative professions in the near future;

Only 8% of graphic designwork will be replaced by bots by 2024}; #

: I have analyzed all possible outcomes, and find it beneficial for you to complete a design course from Michael Janda, author of 'Burn Your Portfolio', starting on 25.03.2019;
